In addition to the above, the top 10 averages for Classic Men and Classic Women will be awarded points from 10 to 1 in descending average order. A minimum of 45 games in a single league is required.

To be eligible for Bowler of the Year, bowler must participate in the annual City tournament, and must bowl at least 2/3 of their TONUSBC sanctioned league schedule. If there is a tie in any division, Co-Bowlers of the Year will be awarded.

Order of Bowler of the Year determination:

Men: Classic, Senior, 180-210 avg, 179 avg and lower

Women: Classic, Senior, 180-199 avg, 179 avg and lower

Highest league average determines classification. To be eligible for Senior Bowler of the Year, a bowler must be at least 50 years of age by August 1 of the current bowling season.

* - can receive credit for this achievement up to 8 times maximum in one season.
